Removal of Maryland Office-Holders.
FREDERICK, Feb. 1.
It is stated here this morning, upon pregious authority, that Governor Lowe has declared his intention of removing every office-holder of the State appointed by Governor Thomas, as that his list of appointments, or a large portion of them, will be sent to the Senate for confirmation on Tuesday morning.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 2.
CATTLE.—There were offered at the scales to-day 850 head of beeves, of which number 500 were sold to city butchers, 30 were left over to sell, and 300 were driven to Philadelphia. Prices ranged from $3 to $4 on the hoof, equal to $6, $7.75, and averaging $3.37 1/2 gross.
HOGS.—We quote at $1.75.
FLOUR.—We have sales to-day of 1,500 bbl Howard street flour at $4.12. The steamers news was not known until after "Change," and its influence, therefore, cannot be fairly seen to-day to-morrow.
 We hear of no transactions in City Mills flour.

GRAIN.—Small parcels of wheat received wagons and railroad sell at 89@90c. for corn and 90@91c. for white. Small sales of rye at 58c. for yellow, and 59@60c. for white. Quote oats at 38c.—scarce and wanted.

PROVISIONS.—There has been some inquiry provisions to-day, particularly for bacon; and only thing which appeared to be wanting, to resume operations, is the opening of navigation. The sales have only been of a retail character and quotations are without change.

MEATS.—Small sales of Pennsylvania hams at 12½c., and hinds, at 20c. We quote Baltimore hams, at 21½@22c.

The New York "Herald" contains the following note from the Massachusetts delegate of a committee which recently visited Washington:

SIR: You will oblige the friends of the exiles who went to Washington, if you state in the "Herald" that we did not understand the President to refuse our request, but only to distinguish as to the mode in which he could comply with it.

His last words at our interview were, that would "consult those he usually advised with on important occasions" in this case, and that "he would do all he could do" for the patriots of Australia.

friends of the exiles in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, that their cases should be left in the hands of the government, believing, they do, that both the President and the distinguished Secretary of State (to whose courtesy we are also much indebted) will leave no proper means unexplored to gratify the wishes of many American citizens as are now interested in this matter.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant.

THOMAS D'ARCY MCGEE,
Delegate from Massachusetts.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A CLERGYMAN.—Rev. I.

Thursday night, while attending a lecture by the Rev. Mr. Eggleston at Mr. Beecher's Church in Brooklyn. His daughter observed him lean forward, and, as he did not stir for some time, she shook him, when it was discovered that he was dead. The deceased was a native of Connecticut, but was pastor of a church for many years in Frederick, Maryland, whence he removed to Brooklyn about a year ago. He was also for many years a resident of this city.

As for the poet, the art of printing will secure him an immortal* that marble cannot boast. Printed records will tell of the great men of the present day, and the proudest specimen of masonry shall have fallen to its base.
